L. Items for future agenda

Ald. Bailey asked if there should be an ordinance to limit public speaking to 3 or 4 minutes. City Attorney Brian Sajdak said he does not believe there is a limit in the code, but there may be a limit in a handbook or policy that spells that out. It could be an ordinance. However implemented, it must be consistently enforced.

Ald. Bailey said if adopted, the three minute time limit could be printed on the agenda under Citizen Commentary and noted on a sign at the podium. Someone could time the speakers and announce when the time limit is up. Discussion ensued as to whether the Mayor would have discretion to extend the time.

Ald. Bailey said he would refer this issue to Legislative Committee.

M. Adjourn

Motion by Ald. Akers, seconded by Ald. Lubotsky, to adjourn at 7:26 p.m. Motion carried unanimously.

Jennifer Goergen, City Clerk
